Mr. Marmalade

By Noah Haidle

Directed by Justin Waggle

(LOS ANGELES, CA) March 17, 2009 -- theatrevolution presents Noah Haidle's savage black comedy about what it takes to grow up in these difficult times, "Mr. Marmalade."

WHAT:

"Mr. Marmalade" is the story of a precocious four-year-old named Lucy struggling through one desperate evening while her make-believe world crumbles around her. Her imaginary friend, Mr. Marmalade, doesn't have much time for her. Not to mention, he beats up his personal assistant, has a cocaine addiction, and a penchant for pornography. Larry, her only real friend, is the youngest suicide attempt in the history of New Jersey. "Mr. Marmalade" is a savage black comedy about what it takes to grow up in these difficult times.
